

For?

College-aged students

Potential expansion to all working age individuals with some form of income?

Potential budgeting options

Essential needs (food, beverages, etc.)

Potential predetermined losses of income (rent)

Leisure and recreational purchases?

"Rainy day" fund

Investments and stocks?

How should the budgeting be computed?

Provide a concise space for the student to create their own budgeting plan?

Have students input their general allowance and have a computerized system that breaks up their earnings into potential uses

External factors to consider when creating budget

Student location/city rates and taxes

Income / allowance

Current economical state of the country